POST OFFICER NOTIFICATION FORM 2023-2024

This form is most important and should be sent to Department Headquarters anytime there is a change in Post Officers.

| Post Name:                 |               | Post #           |             | Dist.# |  |
|----------------------------|---------------|------------------|-------------|--------|--|
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
| Retiring Officer of | record | Commander        | Adjutant    | Other  |  |
| NAME                       |               | Member ID Number |             |        |  |
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
| Now Officer of read        | and a         | Commandar        | Adjutant    | Other  |  |
| New Officer of reco        | nu     | Commander        |             |        |  |
| NAME Member ID Number      |               |                  |             |        |  |
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
| maning rearess.            |               |                  |             |        |  |
|                            | City          |                  | OR Zi       | p:     |  |
| Home Phone:                |               | (                | Cell Phone: |        |  |
| Email                      |               | H                | FAX Number  |        |  |
| Effective date of cha      | inge:         |                  |             |        |  |
|                            | 2             |                  |             |        |  |
|                            |               |                  |             |        |  |
|                            |               | Signed:          |             |        |  |

Post Commander or Adjutant